Changes to your booking

Please advise any changes that occur with your event that affect the conditions of the hosting by Awareness Institute and its equipment so that the relevant information can be altered on your booking form, and we can ensure availability of what you need, when you need it.

Other workshops

Should you book any of the training/consultation rooms, please be aware that there may be groups in other parts venue, so please be considerate of noise when entering and exiting the premises.

Usage, Damage and Insurance

You the guest lecturer are responsible for any and all damages caused to the Awareness Institute premises or equipment during your booking by any of the participants. Awareness Institute does not accept responsibility for the loss, theft or damage to any guest lecturer or participant's equipment at the premises. Guest lecturers/practitioners should ensure that their own insurance covers professional liability as appropriate.

The back door of the building is alarmed after hours and a $200 fine is applicable for anyone setting off the alarm inappropriately. Unfortunately, the fine will be passed on to you if this occurs. So please ensure all facilitators and attendees are aware that the door is not to be used unless their life is in danger at the time.

Access

Normal administration hours are: 10.00am – 6.00pm Monday to Thursday, and 10.00am – 4.00pm on Friday. For access to the Awareness Institute before or after office hours, please liaise with administration staff during the above hours and arrangements can be made for the opening and closing (access to a key) of the Awareness Institute for periods during your event.

Green Policy

The Awareness Institute promotes a green education policy. It is preferred that you do not use polystyrene or paper cups and plates. The Awareness Institute has a stock of mugs and glasses that can be used for beverages. Please wash after use and put away. To assist in saving water, it is preferred that your participants use one mug and glass for the duration of the day.

Cleanliness

- It is your responsibility to maintain cleanliness of the training/consultation rooms and any equipment you use. This includes cleaning the white board after use.
- Please place all garbage (food and drink items) and recyclables (glass, plastic, aluminum and paper, cardboard items) in appropriate bins in the kitchen after use.
- The kitchen is to be left clean.
- Please do not leave any left over food or drink in the fridge.
- If you use the microwave, please wipe over at the end of your event.

Please note that in cases where training/consultation rooms require extensive cleaning by Awareness Institute staff following the event, a by-the-hour charge will be applied. Carpets and floors do not need to be vacuumed or cleaned unless a major spillage occurs.

Food & Beverage

Awareness Institute staff can recommend and arrange catering needs to suit your event and budget. Alternatively if you have a preferred caterer, you are welcome to have them cater your event. Please bring your own teas, coffee, milk etc and required snacks. The supplies in the Kitchen are for Awareness Institute classes only.

Equipment

The cost of room usage may include the use of a whiteboard, chairs, CD player, TV, cushions, mattresses, at no additional cost depending on availability. It is requested that should the whiteboard be used, that it wiped clean at the end of your event. Please use whiteboard markers only, and check availability at time of booking.

Air Conditioning

After hour air conditioning involves pressing a button to the right of the lift, outside the door to the men's toilets once every two hours as required. This includes the weekend. The air conditioning inside the college is on an auto-timer from 9am-9pm.

Awareness Institute accepts payment by credit card, cheque, cash or electronic funds transfer.
